To whom it may concern.

Throughout my journey, I have contributed significantly to small businesses, community development, and organizations outside my academic career. In addition, I have excelled with critical projects in understanding my knowledge and future research to help better understand the future of technology and how it can change the world. With this, the skills and qualifications are an ideal match for your organization and can have an immediate impact.

I greatly admire and appreciate your company's mission and values, along with the goals the company wants to achieve in the future. This is a great opportunity, and I would love to be a part of that mission as it is inspiring and can change the future. With this, my creativity, critical thinking, problem-solving, and collaboration can be essential to help drive continued success for many years.

To demonstrate the scope of not only my career but voluntary and academic history, please take a moment to review the attached resume or visit my website and scroll to the bottom section where a document icon is presented. I appreciate your evaluation of my credentials and subsequent response in the future.

Sincerely,
Trent Halama
